The Kind of a Man She Liked.
"May I open the window for you, miss?" politely inquired a gentleman of a young lady on the Northern Pacific road, as he saw her tugging at a sash that had not yet recovered from the preceding winter.

She glared at him a moment, and gave a reluctant consent.

"Folks can't be too careful who they speak to or accept favors from," she remarked, after a long pause.

"That is very true," replied the gentleman, quietly.

"Are you a Boston drummer?" she inquired.

"No, I am not," he answered.

"A hotel clerk?"

"No, not a hotel clerk."

"I am glad of that," said she. "I never let a drummer or a hotel clerk speak to me. Maybe you're an actor?"

"No, not an actor."

"That's first class!" she exclaimed, showing her dimples and becoming more and more confidential. "If an actor should speak to me, I'd die. What is your business?"

"I am a barkeeper, and I'm traveling West to get a Territorial divorce from my wife," explained the gentleman.

"Oh, I'm so glad!" giggled the girl. "Reach down my satchel; there's a bottle of whisky and a deck of cards in it. I'll play you an old game of California Jack for $5 a corner! I like to meet a gentleman, and I know 'em when I see 'em. Ask the conductor if he has got a corkscrew, will you?"

A Desperate Encounter.
Tuesday afternoon, at Vallejo, Cal., Michael Keefe spread coal oil over his residence near the railroad depot and set it on fire. He drove the family out of doors previous to setting the house on fire, and said he would kill them all. The fire department arrived too late to be of any assistance. Deputy Constable Lee appeared upon the scene and when informed of the facts went toward Keefe and told him he wanted him. Keefe advanced toward Lee and made a motion to put his hand in his pocket, when Lee drew a pistol and pointed it at Keefe who drew from his pocket a razor, and before he could be stopped slashed himself across the throat, making a horrible gash.

The editor of the Pittsburgh Republic, A. Heilmann, personally referred in that journal to his own aggravated case of rheumatism of two years duration, which was cured by St. Jacobs Oil solely.

WHERE WILL IT LEAD?

It is time for the people of Nevada, of all parties, to ask themselves the question: "What standard shall we use in measuring our politicians?" It has got so that little half-dozen of men, all over the State, who happen to have an interest in common, insist that every office-holder shall see all questions in which they are interested from their stand point. If for any reason an Assemblyman or Senator, a Congressman, or even the Governor, in the course of his official life, opposes a measure or movement which may be going to benefit them to the injury of all the rest of the State, they immediately proclaim themselves his enemy, and for ever after fight him on every proposition. They pay no attention to the fact that the man who fills such an office takes an oath before his God that he will do his duty and follow his conscience in all his acts. They never concede for a moment that his sense of duty to the people may have influenced his action. They never give him credit for that honesty of purpose which is one of the highest marks of true manhood. Now we ask all parties and all interests how they expect ever to have good government under such a system as this. We ask the miners and the railroad men, the cattle men and the laboring classes, if they would feel safer with a man who said he would make war on one interest, or favor one class to the detriment of the rest; or whether they would not prefer a man who said, "I will do what I believe to be justice by all classes and every interest, and if one section or one class asks for privileges or benefits that trespass on the rights of any other class I will deny it." Would such a man not be better than those who truckle and slide out when a vote is taken, and try to carry water on both shoulders on every disputed point? We say yes. We say that that is what makes men. It is such a spirit that develops our Thurmans, our Shermans, our Edmunds and our Garfields. If the present policy is to be pursued, we ask seriously, where will it lead? If a man must have no convictions, if he is to either retire from politics or else knuckle to the prejudice that is uppermost, where will our legislators and officers come from? If we can only elect the man who has aroused no opposition, will not our supply run short? If we must run to the miners to see if they will oppose a man before nominating him, and to the railroads to see if they will accept him, and to "the soldiers and the sailors, and the tinkers and the tailors," to find out if he has ever trod on any particular corn, it will soon run politics down into very low depths. It rightly followed politics is a high and honorable calling. It is a proud thing to be placed in public office by the wish of a majority of the people; but it is not a proud thing to trade honest manhood for even a high office. One incident in Garfield's life teaches a grand lesson. When the inflation movement spread over Ohio he came home from Washington, expecting to be forced into the movement or else out of office and into private life. He refused to yield, however, and wrote to a friend that he had made his choice calmly, with the full expectation of forever ending his political career. However, he took the stump, and had the proud honor of so far changing public opinion upon that great question as to be re-elected by a fine vote. Under our onerous such an act would be certain ruin to an office-seeker. We hope to see a change in this respect, and advise voters to think the matter over carefully.

At the next Presidential election is thrown into the House of Representatives the vote will be taken by States, and Nevada will be as important as New York. Will Republicans risk it?

Let all Republicans attend the meeting to-night.

TO-DAY'S NEWS

Press Dispatches to EVENING GAZETTE.

EASTERN DISPATCHES.

New York Republican Convention—Judge Folger Nominated for Governor—Press Comments.

SARATOGA, September 20. The final ballot for Governor resulted as follows: Folger, 257; Cornell, 232; Wadsworth, 18. Necessary to a choice, 249.

The result was received with tumultuous cheers.

Warner Miller, United States Senator, said—The friends of Governor Cornell have labored incessantly to secure his renomination, but have not succeeded. I now move that the nomination be made unanimous.

New York, September 21. One of the leading papers says: Defeated or victorious, the Republican party of New York has received a blow in the house of its friends which is purely gratuitous trifling with its strength, and which will do more than anything which has happened within the past ten years to diminish its capacity for growth, and to leave it without the sympathy or respect of those who looked to it as the exponent of political morality and the champion of political reform.

The Times has the following on the Convention: The result will be disappointment to the majority of Republicans, and to a large number of voters who on other than party grounds have appreciated the significance of the fight made against Governor Cornell. It may also turn out to be disappointment to the men who have been mainly instrumental in bringing it about; and alleged representatives have deliberately set aside the strongest candidate presented to them and made choice of a nominee who, if not the weakest in public estimation, is at least the representative of the weakest and most unpopular section of the Republican party. It is sufficient to note the fact that the Republican party is represented by a candidate who is not in any sense the choice of the majority of its voters, and who if elected at all must owe his election altogether to instinct of party rather than to popular choice. Jay Gould has triumphed at Saratoga. Let facts be distorted ever so ingeniously, future Governors have been warned that, in this State, they cannot safely run counter to the schemes of Gould, be the Republican candidate ever so strict a constructionist of the obligations which the State executive owes to the people.

The World, which affects to think that Folger is the strongest and Cornell the weakest candidate the Republican party could select, says: "Do not congratulate yourselves that in the nomination of Judge Folger they may read the political obituary of Governor Cornell."

Abandoning Brokers.

New York, September 21. The mining firm of James D. Sands & Co. has failed. The firm did a large business with down-town business men and with society people up-town who dabbled in mining stocks. Sands is reported to have gone to San Francisco to attend to the development of several Mexican mines. He was Secretary of several mining companies. It is not known where his partner, C. R. Callahan, has gone. Among inquiring customers were two society ladies who contributed $210,000 each to a pool, out of which they realized $60,000. All the rest is said to be left in the hands of the firm for future contemplated speculations on a larger scale. An up-town crookery merchant and several prominent lawyers are said to have left about $10,000 each in the vaults of the firm before the members disappeared. A large number of people deposited between one and five thousand dollars each with the missing brokers as margin. Neither of the firm have been seen since the 11th instant. The Sheriff has seized what effects could be found.

A Wandering Corpse.

PHILADELPHIA, September 21. The corpse of an unknown boy is having a variety of adventures in Pennsylvania towns. A boy was killed by a train at Johnston last month and the body identified by a citizen of Bristol as that of his son and tenderly laid it at rest; but the wandering son from Bristol soon after returned alive and well. Rending of the occurrence, an anxious father in Sharon, named Seaborn, had the remains disinterred and became thoroughly satisfied that they were those of his son, and buried them at Sharon Aug. 20. The reappearance of Eddie Seaborn caused the wildest excitement among those families familiar with the facts of the double mistake. The real name of the wandering corpse has not been ascertained yet.

Death of an Old Soldier.

New York, September 21. Lieutenant-Colonel Harvey A. Allen died at Schoharlenburg, N. J., near this city, yesterday. He was at the siege of Vera Cruz and the battles of Cerro Gordo and Molino del Rey, and for meritorious conduct in the latter action was breveted Captain and at the close of the war he returned to the States to resume service in Florida against the Seminoles. He served through the war of the rebellion and then was assigned to California with the rank of Major.

Folger's Successor.

WASHINGTON, September 21. More interest attaches here to surmises over the probable successorship to the Treasury portfolio than to the victory won at Saratoga by Folger. The chances seem to be in favor of John C. New or some unknown New Yorker.

Nebraska Republicans.

OMAHA, September 21. The Republican State Convention met this morning and nominated Hon. Jas. W. Dawes of Crete for Governor, A. W. Age of Hamilton for Lieutenant Governor, E. P. Roggen of Lancaster for Secretary, after which an adjournment was taken till 2 p. m.

FOREIGN TELEGRAPH.

A Protest Against Chinese Labor in England.

LONDON, September 21. A meeting convened by the Democratic Federation was held here last evening to discuss the proposed introduction of Chinese labor into Great Britain. A motion calling upon the Government to frame measures to prevent the importation of Chinese was adopted. Mr. Parr of San Francisco said that if the Chinese came to Great Britain the English workmen might as well go and die.

Egyptian Affairs.

CAIRO, September 21. The garrison of Damietta refuses to surrender.

PORT SAID, September 21.

Fort Ghemileh has surrendered. The garrison was found to consist of only 80 men, the remainder of the force having gone to Damietta last evening.

Another Canadian Disaster.

LACHINE, Ont., September 21. The boiler of the ferry-steamers Richelieu exploded this morning and killed Duquetta the pilot, Jas. Richardson and Persellus Arriot of Chateaufort, Quebec. A son of the pilot is missing, supposed to have been blown overboard. Several passengers were severely scalded by steam.

WESTERN TELEGRAMS.

A Veteran Fireman Killed. SAN FRANCISCO, September 21.

While Assistant Chief Engineer Brady was answering an alarm of fire this afternoon a team attached to an express wagon became alarmed and ran away, colliding with Brady's buggy, causing his horse to become unmanageable. He was thrown out and instantly killed. The driver of the express wagon is said to be very badly injured.

RECEIVED WITH HONORS.

Reno's Reception to General Miller and General Rosecrans. United States Senator Miller and General Rosecrans passed west on last night's overland. The Reno Guard, headed by the Reno band, marched to the depot to pay their compliments to California's representatives. Governor Kinkadee introduced the gentlemen to Captain Moger. After exchanging a few words the Captain introduced the old veterans to his company. General Miller made a few remarks, which were enthusiastically received. J. C. Hagerman proposed three cheers and they were given with a will. The distinguished gentlemen seemed to appreciate the reception given them.

ON THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC.

A Road that Runs through a Barren Coun'ty.

EDITOR GAZETTE—Dear Sir: The country along the Southern Pacific railroad, from Lathrop to Tulare, is very uninviting. Not an orchard or vineyard to be seen, except one at Merced. Grape vines are used to ornament the windows, and only three were to be seen for that purpose. The land is light and sandy, and it requires a large amount of rain to produce a crop. This year the crop is nearly a failure on account of there not having been rain enough. There is some good land, and the first timber to be seen on the road, to speak of, we see at Tulare. We cross the Tehachapi mountains and one end of the Mojave desert, on which grows the yucco palm, which is as ugly as it is useless. It has no leaves and the branches are like clubs. The foliage is flat, stiff and spike-like, six to eight inches long, with a sharp point. This covers the entire tree, with the points turned down on the trunk and erect on the branches. They grow from one to 20 inches in diameter. The best country (after we cross a slight range of hills leaving this desert) we see as we approach Los Angeles on the entire road from Lathrop. Los Angeles is a nice town and fruit is plentiful. After leaving Los Angeles we soon come to the great Yuma desert, on which nothing grows but a little grease wood and mosquito timber; no birds, rabbits or insects save the ant for over 200 miles, and as much farther as you like to follow it. We cross on this desert a valley or depression 244 feet below the sea level, but we would not know it if others had not found it out. Yuma is a small Spanish town of 400 or 500 people, most in adobe houses, and the country from there to Tucson is nearly barren until we come within a few miles of Tucson. Tucson has some nice buildings, but most of the buildings are adobe; population 7,000 to 10,000, and it appears like a good business place. The railroad company have nice hotels built at all the good towns from San Francisco to Deming. Robinson's show is here to-day.

The Weekly Gazette.
The WEEKLY GAZETTE issued to-day commends itself to all who are interested in reading a good newspaper. It contains everything of importance in the shape of news that can be obtained at home or abroad. Great care and attention are employed in compiling the matter which fills its columns and as a consequence it is rapidly growing in favor. Its subscription price is only $3 50 a year to any part of the country, post paid.

Last Night's Meeting.
About 50 Republicans met at the Reform Club hall, for the purpose of selecting delegates to be voted for at the primaries Saturday. B. F. Leete was elected Chairman. A motion was made that the meeting adjourn sine die, but was promptly voted down. A motion to adjourn until to-night at 7:30 o'clock at Reform Club hall, was carried and it was so ordered. The meeting this evening will be largely attended.

Meeting Postponed.
Members of the Young Men's Republican Club are hereby notified that the meeting called for this evening has been postponed until to-morrow (Friday) evening at 7 o'clock sharp. Every member of the Club is expected to be present, as business of paramount importance will be transacted. A full and fair expression of the club is desired. G. W. CONKLING, Pres't.
S. LAKE, Secretary.

A Close Call.
Last night, about 10:30, Pat They got his dander up and took a shot at Dan O'Keefe, the clerk at the American House. Dan says he snubbed him for interfering in a conversation. They are in jail, and will be examined to-morrow at 10 o'clock. Pat made a good shot, but Dan dodged.

BEEF CATTLE.

Predictions that Cattle Will Become Still Higher Than Now.

Nollie Willey and four assistants arrived at Reno yesterday with 300 head of beef cattle for A. A. Longley and Louis Dean. They came from Warner valley, and were purchased of Ayers and McConaghy. Another band of the same number will come in next week, and be pastured along the river. All the small bands of cattle are being concentrated and bought up by regular dealers, who seem to be looking ahead for speculative prices in the near future. A man in Warner valley sold all his cattle, "just as they run," for $30 a head, counting cows, yearlings and all. This is an extraordinary price, but wise ones say they will be worth $40 per head before many months, and that beef will become a luxury to poor folks, who will have to come down to chickens, trout and eggs, or go hungry. Down in the southern counties ordinary beefs have been selling for months, in small lots, and they have been scarce at that, as owners of stock have good feed and having foreseen this unprecedented advance in prices held back for high rates.

Lost Man Department.
A. H. Barnes of the Golden Eagle has received a letter of inquiry from Runnells, Iowa, of which the following is an extract. Perhaps some of the old Peaviners about Reno remember the person inquired for, and can relieve a mother's suspense by telling what has become of him: "In July, 1875, A. Ellet Earlewine was employed at Peavine, on a cattle ranch, eleven miles from Reno, by a man named Rose. In December of the same year he was hauling square timber with a six-mule team for the quartz mines, and shortly after that he was butchering with a man about one mile from the California line. The last heard from him was on May 23d, 1876, when he was still at the same place. He had considerable money, and may be he was murdered for that. To know the worst would be preferable to these long years of suspense." Any information relating to Earlewine will be transmitted to his anxious mother by Mr. Barnes.

Reno Disgraced.
A number of young hoodlums and several old ones disgraced Reno at the train last evening, by acting in a manner so disgustingly ungentlemanly as to make every lady and gentleman present blush with shame. If the passengers on the train judge Reno's moral and intellectual standing by what they saw and heard last night, they have certainly a very poor opinion of the town. Some of the young scamps even so far forgot themselves as to throw rocks at the train. The officers ought to have taken notice of it.

Looking Up.
Silver Glance District, in Douglas county, is proving a valuable mineral section, showing up better every day. The Ventura mine has proved itself good property, and other mines will shortly be turning out bullion in the same way. This belt is no doubt a continuation of that which runs through the Sweetwater mountains, where some of the most promising mines on the coast are being developed. It is bullion that tells, and bullion is being taken out.

Young Folks Concert.
The young folks connected with the M. E. church are very busy now arranging for a concert and entertainment to be given in the church Monday evening, September 25th. The young folks having it in hand would be pleased to see all their friends encourage them with their presence on Monday evening, and they will assure them a pleasant evening's entertainment. A small admission fee will be charged.

Don't be Deceived.
I. Barnett is receiving new goods every day, and the ladies all say his stock cannot be surpassed. The sheep-worn goods of some defunct dry goods firm are dear at any price, and the creditors, knowing that they cannot sell the trash in the cities, box it up and ship it to some country town and sell it at auction. Don't be deceived, but go to I. Barnett's.

Wrecked Engines.
Two locomotives belonging to the C. P.—64 and 191—went through here this morning, survivors of a grand smash-up on the Salt Lake division last week. They were in a calamitous condition, and looked like a junk shop tied up for removal. They tried to pass each other on the same track; hence the dilapidation.

Get in Early.
The trustees are very anxious to have all exhibits in the pavilion on Monday. A clerk will be there Saturday and Sunday and Monday to receive goods. They want the pavilion to look as well on Monday evening as it does on Saturday. Don't forget.

A Sheep Register.
A Californian has invented a sheep-counting machine. It counts up to 10,000, registers the number, then gives a snap, jumps back and begins counting again. It never misses a sheep, old or young, fat or lean.

A TIMELY PRESCRIPTION.

How to Sweeten Bile-water After a Protracted Debauch.

Those who sometimes "tarry long at the wine" will read with interest a prescription for the prevention of "hot coppers." The thing needed is not a remedy, but a preventive. Do not wait till morning comes with its train of disagreeable symptoms, and then resort to soda water, but act as follows before going to bed: Put a teaspoonful of carbonate of soda into a little less than a wineglass of water, with three or four drops of essence of ginger, to which may be added a small sprinkling of cayenne pepper; stir it up well, fill the carbonate of soda be dissolved, and drink it off. Be assured that this potion will remove all the acidity of the stomach, so that you will wake in the morning without any signs of parched throat, fevered tongue or heartburn. During these piping election times many a patriot will fall a victim to the liberality of candidates, and the above prescription will come in handy, if the patient is only sober enough to administer it himself or get somebody else to do it. It would be a good idea for Reno saloon-keepers to provide themselves with this stomach-sweetener, for a night-cap.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

Resolved, That the honor and glory of the Republic, its continued peace, prosperity and progress will be best served by the perpetuation and continued success of the Republican party. We declare our fidelity to the principles as expressed in the Chicago platform of 1860, and as further embodied in its great history, and to its organization to the present time.

Resolved, That in the tragic death of President Garfield our country has suffered a deplorable loss, and the Republican party mourns for one who consecrated a noble and heroic life to the vindication of its great principles.

Resolved, That we have faith in the prudent and sagacious administration of President Arthur and believe it will result in promoting the best interests of the country.

Resolved, That the presence in our midst of a servile race of aliens, incapable of assimilating with our institutions, is a perpetual menace to the peace and safety of the Republic, and that the Chinese, by the passage of a law excluding the Chinese by a Republican Congress and approved by a Republican President is a genuine cause of satisfaction. We are in favor of strenuously enforcing the provisions of said law, and we pledge the Republican party to labor now and henceforth to secure such further legislation as will permanently exclude the Chinese.

Resolved, That we recognize the paramount importance of maintaining unimpaired the free public school system of the State. We shall defend it against sectarian, political or other improper influences, and we favor such further legislation as will secure the adoption of a system by which this State shall furnish the text books at the lowest possible figure.

Resolved, That owing to the remote position of Nevada from the sea-board and the entire absence of navigable waters and competing lines of rail-roads to and from commercial centers, we demand from Congress such wholesome and effective legislation as will place our people on terms of equality in relation to transportation charges with communities specially favored by railroad monopolies.

Resolved, That we pledge the Republican party of Nevada to such a course of enlightened legislation as will extend to railroad and other corporations doing business in this State the same protection and the same rights before the law as is accorded to individuals—no more and no less. And further, that the Republican party favors and demands at the hands of the State Legislative legislation regulating and controlling the freight and fares on all railroads within this State.

Resolved, That we are in favor of the Government of the United States establishing a postal telegraph service, and operating the same in connection with the Postoffice Department.
Resolved, That the coinage of silver should be placed upon the same basis as that of gold, and we invoke early Congressional legislation to that end.
Resolved, That it is the duty of the Legislature to pass such laws as shall reduce the expenses of state and county governments to the lowest possible limit, consistent with the requirements of the public service.
Resolved, That the earnest attention of Congress and the State Legislature is directed to the subject of codifying the laws relating to the location and working of mineral lands to the end that legitimate prospecting and the development of our chief source of wealth may best be promoted.
Resolved, That the appropriation by a Republican Congress for the payment of pensions to invalid Union soldiers and to the veterans of the Mexican war is the discharge of a debt of honor and loyalty, a general recognition of our country's defenders in its supreme hour of peril.
Resolved, That in the judgment of this convention the Legislature, when next convened, should make the necessary provision for a convention to revise the entire constitution of the State; that in providing for such convention well-guarded restrictions should be made, defining the number of delegates, their compensation, and fixing the duration of its session; that we believe such a convention is imperatively demanded by the necessities of the times, and among others for the following cogent reasons: First—to change the fundamental law so as to secure as nearly as may be the equal and uniform taxation on all property subjected thereto, to—regulate and render equal and just all the rates of passage and freight upon all railroads doing business in this State, to the end that our leading industries may be fostered and not oppressed, built up and not overthrown; and third—to secure the reduction of the expenses of the State to the minimum by dispensing with all unnecessary officers and employees, rendering more speedy and economical the collection of public revenue, and the general administration of justice.
